GOV. EASLEY TO SPEAK AT EDUCATION CONFERENCE IN GREENSBORO

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley will deliver remarks at the Closing the Achievement Gap conference on Tuesday (March 25) at 11:30 a.m. in the Guilford Ballroom at the Koury Conference Center (3121 High Point Rd.) in Greensboro.

The Closing the Achievement Gap conference is a three-day conference that offers workshops to educators across the state on topics for improving minority and at-risk student achievement. This is the seventh year the State Board and the Department of Public Instruction have organized the conference.

Directions: From I-40 take exit 217 to High Point Road. After you go through the first stoplight, High Point Road turns into Koury Boulevard. The conference center is on the left.
